Vice President Pritchett asked that a Board communication be sent with a breakdown on area. She asked when the central kitchen will be opened. Mr. Browning answered that it will be in the first to half of November. Vice President Pritchett asked for an explanation of Proposition 39. Mr. Browning said that it was a California clean energy jobs act which provided a bucket of funds that had to be encumbered by June 2019 for energy upgrades to facilities. He gave some examples of purchases and upgrades that were done.

President Ryan pointed out the largest single expenditure in her area was for American Legion High School. This means that the neighborhood school expenditures are miniscule when looking at eight percent compared to the higher percentage in the other two areas, and she feels it is important to spend bond dollars through an equity lense.

9.3 Bond Oversight Committee Annual Report 2017-2018 (Nathaniel Browning and Rose F. Ramos)

The Chair of the Bond Oversight Committee, Michael Watanabe, gave the presentation. He gave an overview of Proposition 39, the 2018-19 and current membership, support staff, annual activities, projects, Measures Q and R audit findings, and conclusions.

Board Comments:

Second Vice President Minnick said he appreciates the presentation and responded to the idea of having additional opportunities to have engaged conversations that may be lacking now that there is not a Facilities Committee. Although he agrees that it is more appropriate for the Board to address things in this space, he loves the idea of having opportunities for community input. He looks to Mr. Browning, as he knows there is talk about community meetings around facilities master plan matters in the future. He would like to look at how to structure regular meetings a couple of times per year.

Member Garcia thanked Second Vice President Minnick for his comments and asked eing opporte lo co[r

Continuous Improvement and Accountability Chief Vincent Harris began the presentation and introduced Chief Business Officer Rose Ramos, State and Federal Programs Director Kelley Odipo, Accounting Director Amari Watkins, Instructional Assistant Superintendent Mary Hardin Young, and Cesar Chavez Elementary School Principal Eracleo Guevara. They reminded us that all children can learn, went over budget development and adoption, restructuring of our current process for tracking supplemental and concentration funds, Federal and State funds, the SACS code structure, conditions for change, return on investment, the mid-year review process, and next steps.

Board Comments:

Member Murawski thanked the presenters and said she is wondering how principals can get the right variable to measure. She thinks it may be in consultation with the Instructional Assistant Superintendents, but said it is a concern of hers as we go into this wonderful methodology for measuring how we are doing. She would like to make sure that we are paying attention to the goal and measuring the right things.

Member Garcia also thanked the presenters, she found the process insightful and exciting, and said what really came through is the partnership with the principals. She asked how the Title I dollars flow to the site level. Ms. Odipo answered that there is a school-wide structure with a threshold of 50 percent. Therefore, if there are 50 percent of students that qualify for free and reduced lunch, then that triggers an allocation for that school site. Member Garcia asked what happens to the schools that do not meet that percentage. Ms. Odipo said that all schools receive an allocation of supplemental concentration dollars. Member Garcia asked about a public charge change at the Federal level and how this may discourage parents from applying for free and reduced lunch. She does not need the answer right now. She asked for a listing of schools and their percentages.

Member Woo asked if these Title I dollars are last year's money. Ms. Odipo said we are talking about this year's money for this school year. Member Woo said that there is a strong belief that next year's money is going to be reduced, and he is holding out hope that we can keep it the same. He asked if the presentation was for every school. Ms. Odipo said that every school conducted a mid-year review.

President Ryan thanked staff for all the work in aligning the SPSA budget to the LCAP and asked Principal Guevara how he has used the SPSA and the mid-year review as a way to embrace continuous improvement. Principal Guevara said that it has guided their school year thus far in terms of needs and what direction they want to go, and he gave examples. President Ryan commended Principal Guevara for his leadership and his partnership with his teachers.

Superintendent Aguilar commented that this is foundational to our own vision of tying student outcomes to every decision we make around our budget, and he said this is not connected to the fiscal crisis in any way. This will hopefully set the foundation for when we are not in the fiscal crisis situation anymore, and the community should continue to demand and expect that we are tying every instructional and budget decision to very specific student outcomes. In that regard, it is also a reflection of our commitment to the countless hours and energy that have been expended by countless people. Superintendent Aguilar also said this is not about the District centralizing and keeping our site leaders and teaching staff from being innovative. By no means expect SPSAs to minimize our site's ability to be innovative. We want sites to be innovative, but want to be able to measure what it is that is being introduced into the system; that has to be tied to student outcomes. He asked Principal Guevara to express his viewpoint on this. Principal Guevara said that principals tend to think of the school as their school but the budget as the students' budget. Therefore, when he is able to ask in survey what parents need and would like to see for their own children, he is not held back at all; it allows him to move the work alongside them, and it has been a good feeling to have this tool which with to work.

9.5 Approve Resolution No. 3120: Resolution to Eliminate Certificated Employees Due to a Reduction of Particular Kinds of Service (Cancy McArn)

President Ryan noted that this is a preliminary notification of action. The presentation was then year, but because the issue was more around specific needs related to credentialing. Ms. McArn clarified that, yes, when there is a need one must look at the specific credential to see if it is a match. Lay-offs are done in seniority order, so the particular category or need is looked at first. Second Vice President Minnick asked if we could lose a Math teacher, for example, when we still need them due to seniority. Ms. McArn said that we do the lay-offs based on the need for next year, based on what we know now. When we get attrition and can bring an employee what makes these positions eliminated through the budgeting process. Ms. McArn explained how a reduction at a specific school site leads to a District wide look and perspective. She also explained how partial fte plays into it. Member Murawski asked if we will have fewer fte of total teachers next year. Ms. McArn answered that these are the positions identified, at this point in time, and the suggestion is to reduce these positions. This does not mean that we will not need additional positions, it just means that we need to continue to closely monitor throughout the next months, and going into the summer, to ensure that if something changes we are ready to make the commitment change. But as of right now, based on our overall needs, this is what is being recommended. Member Murawski asked if there is a number of positions that can be projected as needed based on prior experience. Ms. McArn said that this year they specifically tried to identify areas that 1) in which we know we have attrition and are likely going to be able to cover the loss and 2) are in areas that we know we will continue to need to try and recruit, such as Science and Special Education. Member Murawski said that she is willing to accept that we are in a tough financial situation and cannot afford to keep more staff than we need. However, what she is still concerned about is that we may close these positions, but then may need to add more staff, and the process for that seems a lot more cumbersome. We do not have a lot of time to look at if there are any other options the reality of a fiscal situation that is not allowing numbers to be below the maximum for staffing per contracts.

Second Vice President Minnick motioned to approve and Member Woo seconded. The motion passed 6-1 with Member Murawski abstaining.
