

CONCI

Student: _____
Grade: _____
School: _____

Pursuant to Education Code 10-200, the State of Connecticut sponsors extracurricular programs (including cheerleading) for students. The student and parent/le Sheet. Once signed, the S programs in which the Stu

IMPC

If a Student is suspected of an injury, the student must be immediately removed from activity until he/she has been cleared by a physician. For interscholastic sports; ME who must affirmatively state that the student is within the scope of his/her licensed provider and has received appropriate exceptions to this medical

Depending on the circumstances, the student may be removed from activity by the coach, athletic trainer, or other school personnel. In the case of an actual or suspected injury; (2) in all other cases, the student must be removed from activity. Tool (SCAT) will be used to assess the student's safety and performance. The student will be withdrawn from activity until cleared by a parent or other

Once a student has been cleared by a licensed health care provider, the student may return to activity. Concussion (including mild traumatic brain injury) problems, such as headache, dizziness, memory, concentration, and irritability. If the student has a headache, dizziness, memory, concentration, or irritability, the student must be removed from activity until cleared by a parent or other licensed health care provider. The student must be contained in

Dated: _____

Student _____

Signature _____

Ori